

Edited by Sophie Goodwin

We trawl the high street, so you don't have to...

Brand-new baby boutique Felix & Lily's, in Camden Passage, NI, sells lots of organic treats. Lullaby Lavender Talcum Powder, $4.70, and Massage Oil, £10.50 (www.felixandlilys.com).

Match pink cotton tights (below) with a pinafore dress or woollen skirt. Jojo Maman Bébé, $5 (www.jojomamanbebe.co.uk).

Altogether's Bedtime Bag includes a cotton flannel housecoat (left) or pyjamas in a pink rosebud print. Perfect for sleepovers. £27 (www.buyaltogether.co.uk).

MUST TRY

This holistic Starter Kit from Beginning (above) includes a tiny soap, bath milk, massage oil, nappy-change balm, dusting powder, room mist and a candle. £20 (020 7730 1234).

PRETTY DRESSES FOR GIRLS

EVERY LITTLE LADY NEEDS A SMART PARTY FROCK. THIS LADYBIRD DRESS FROM BOUTIQUE ENFANT HAS A HAND-SMOKED BODICE. £35 (www.boutiqueenfant.com).

MUST HAVE

Kent & Caray make sweet separates that are soft to the touch. Order a Peter Pan Blouse (above) in one of four different floral prints. £20.95 (0870 112 6096).

Hair ties are hard to keep hold of – so make sure they are easy to spot. Choose roses, daisies, strawberries or pink or blue butterflies. $6 per pair from Aztec (020 8877 9954).

Stella Jordan, Best Features

Small people should still be well prepared. Pop these cotton handkerchiefs from Cath Kidston in their pockets. $5 (www.cathkidston.co.uk).

Belle de Jour

DAKOTA FANNING

Nothing is normal for War of the Worlds star Dakota Fanning. Thirteen next week, the tiny American actress looks at home on the red carpet at the LA premiere of her latest film, Charlotte's Web, in a dusky pink tunic, leggings and pumps. Sweet but not too twee, Dakota is wise not to wear a fussy frock that would make her look pretentious, not pretty. Uptown Girl.